

Rev. Fredia Travis

A child of the king, a daughter, a wife and a mother, born Fredia Christian; the youngest of nine children. From humble beginnings, Fredia was raised and educated in South Central Los Angeles, where she accepted the Lord, at a very early age. It was evident that God was doing something special in her life.

She is a woman of faith and prayer, seeking God in everything submitting herself and surrendering her will to our heavenly Father. If there is ever any question as to her favorite scripture, it is Matthew 6:33 & 34. “But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you. Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things.” she indeed lives by this scripture and encourages others to do the same.

In October of 1982, she married Mr. Hiram J. Travis, and after seven years of marriage, Fredia had been told she could not have children. So she challenged the doctors with her faith and let them know she would trust in God, and was blessed with her first miracle child, Breanna Victoria and three years later a second miracle child, Bianca Monique.

Fredia is saved, sanctified, and filled with the Holy Ghost. She joined the Friendship Baptist Church in August of 1980 under the pastorate of Rev. Dr. James D. Carrington, where she currently serves to date.

Blessed with many gifts and talents and using them in the service of the Lord to bring him honor and glory. It seems that God was not through with here yet. In April of 1995, Fredia heard the voice of the Lord call her to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ. She began to walk in the call that was placed on her life. This became more evident while ministering in convalescent homes, hospitals, and to the sick and shut in. As an avid teacher of the Word of God, Fredia has worked with the youth ministry and Sunday School, presently she teaches Baptismal Training, and co-teaching the women’s Wednesday night Bible Study Class.

As a vocalist Fredia has provided back ground vocals for Tevin Campbell, Patti Labelle, Stevie Wonder and Chaka Khan. She has also performed as a Guest artist and lead vocalist with Brent Jones and TP Mob, Orange County Gospel Choir, and appeared on Bobby Jones Gospel.

Fredia was licensed to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ, in February 2010. Fredia graduated from Bethel Christian College where she received her BA degree in biblical counseling in 2012. Giving everything that she does she is also a very active participant in the Convalescent Ministry where she uses all of her gifts and talents. Many know when she's around because at any given moment she may shout, “When I think about the goodness of Jesus, and all that He’s done for me, my soul cries out HALLELUJAH”!
